

Stéphane Pannetier Le Hénaff

Biography

Stéphane Pannetier Le Hénaff is a figurative painter born in Avranches and now residing in Fleury-sur-Orne, France. He specializes in creating and commissioning portraits from live models and photographic references, from graphite drawings to Hahnemühle fine art prints.

A former student of the École des Beaux-Arts de Montréal, the Barcelona Academy of Art and the German Academy of Art, he has been exhibiting his work since 2015. He has been affiliated with Urssaf since 2019 and has been represented by TOOLIP ART GALLERY since February 2025.

Her current projects include two series: one titled "Wild Flowers," which uses graphite and inks, and the other, "The Saga of Pandora's Box," which explores spherical perspective with a transitional tone in oil to interpret memories of plagues.
